USC Lancaster

Welfare and Grievance Committee Report

March 3, 2017

In the 2016-2017 academic year, the local Welfare and Grievance committee has made the following non-substantive updates or revisions to the campus description including changes to the:

1. Percentages of tenured faculty, non-tenured tenure-track faculty, and instructors on the USCL as of the Fall 2016 semester

2. Number of Palmetto College programs to reflect all currently offered degrees

3. Enrollment numbers that reflect FTE over the last five years

4. Language under Academic Advising from faculty are “required” to serve as academic advisors to faculty “tend” to serve as academic advisors

5. Language under the Librarians and Library/Library Services sections (Approved by USCL librarians)

6. Language under RPS grants that now states that in recent years, the RPS program has provided approximately $40,000 with untenured tenure-track faculty being prioritized

7. Language that clarifies the availability for vehicles for university-associated events